| | |
|---|---|
| Edition | Revised edition (supersedes all prior versions) |
| Effective date | November 11, 2026 |
| Approved by | Board of Directors of International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc., Resolution No. 2026-01 dated November 11, 2026 |

1. Purpose

These Committee Charters (the "Charters") set out the purpose, structure, authority, responsibilities, procedures and limitations applicable to the principal committees of International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc. (the "Association" or "IBPA").

These Charters are intended to:

(a) define the role and functions of each principal committee of the Association;

(b) support the orderly delegation of responsibilities by the Board of Directors;

(c) ensure clarity, accountability and consistency in the work of committees;

(d) protect the integrity of committee-level decision-making; and

(e) supplement the Association's Bylaws and other governing documents.

These Charters must be read together with the Bylaws, the Board of Directors, Officers and Committees Governance Policy, the Governance Policy, the Code of Ethics, the Conflict of Interest Policy, the Professional Standards, the Membership Policy, the Membership Application Review Procedure, the Membership Review Policy and the Association's other duly adopted policies.

2. General Rules for Committee Governance

2.1 Creation and Authority

Each committee exists by authority of the Board of Directors. No committee has independent governance authority unless expressly delegated by the Board in writing and to the extent permitted by law and the Association's governing documents.

2.2 Scope of Authority

Committees may review, evaluate, discuss, recommend, coordinate and administer matters within their approved scope. Unless expressly authorized, committees may not:

(a) amend the Bylaws or key governance documents;

(b) bind the Association contractually;

(c) commit the Association financially beyond approved authority;

(d) override decisions of the Board;

(e) act beyond their defined purposes and authority.

2.3 Appointment of Members

Committee members and chairs are appointed by the Board of Directors or by another person or body authorized by the Board.

2.4 Term of Service

Unless the Board determines otherwise, committee members serve at the pleasure of the Board and may be removed, replaced or reappointed at any time.

2.5 Committee Chairs

Each committee may have a chair or co-chairs. The chair is responsible for organizing the committee's work, keeping it within its scope, maintaining procedural order and reporting to the Board or the supervising Officer.

2.6 Meetings

Committees meet as needed in person or by lawful remote communication methods. Committees keep orderly records of material actions, recommendations and decisions.

2.7 Quorum

Unless otherwise determined by the Board or by the charter of a particular committee, a majority of the appointed committee members constitutes a quorum.

2.8 Voting

Unless otherwise provided, committee recommendations or actions are approved by a majority of the committee members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

2.9 Reporting

Committees report to the Board of Directors or to an officer designated by the Board, in such form and at such intervals as required.

2.10 Conflicts of Interest

All committee members are subject to the Association's Conflict of Interest Policy and must disclose actual, potential or perceived conflicts and recuse themselves when necessary.

2.11 Confidentiality

Committee members must maintain the confidentiality of non-public materials, deliberations, applicant information, disciplinary matters and other sensitive information of the Association.

3. Membership Review Board Charter

3.1 Purpose

The Membership Review Board is responsible for reviewing and evaluating membership applications within the Association's selective membership framework.

3.2 Composition

The Membership Review Board consists of all Board Members, Membership Selection & Quality Control, and any other Directors appointed to it by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Chair and the Secretary are appointed by the Board and do not vote; the Chair has a casting vote only in the event of a tie. The minutes are signed by all members. The Board Member, Legal Affairs and the Board Member, Financial Affairs do not review membership applications.

3.3 Principal Responsibilities

The Membership Review Board must:

(a) review membership applications and supporting materials;

(b) evaluate applicants against the Association's criteria, standards and values;

(c) request additional information or clarification where necessary;

(d) make decisions of Approved, Pending Additional Information, Deferred or Denied;

(e) ensure fairness, confidentiality and consistency of the review;

(f) maintain the integrity of the Association's selective admission process.

3.4 Procedure

The evaluation methodology is set out in the Membership Application Review Procedure; composition, voting timelines, minutes and appeals are set out in the Membership Review Policy.

3.5 Limits of Authority

The Membership Review Board exercises only the authority granted by the Bylaws, the Membership Application Review Procedure, the Membership Review Policy, the Membership Policy or a decision of the Board. It may not independently change membership criteria or grant exceptions to approved standards unless expressly authorized by the Board.

3.6 Requirements for Members

Members of the Membership Review Board must have a professional reputation, sound judgment, the ability to maintain confidentiality and the ability to evaluate applicants fairly and objectively.

3.7 Conflict of Interest Restrictions

No member may take part in reviewing an applicant if he or she has a personal, family, financial, competitive, mentoring, teaching or other conflict of interest.

4. Standards & Ethics Committee Charter

4.1 Purpose

The Standards & Ethics Committee supports the Association in interpreting, applying and reviewing the Professional Standards and ethical conduct requirements.

4.2 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee may:

(a) review complaints or concerns relating to standards or ethics;

(b) evaluate alleged conduct inconsistent with the Association's standards;

(c) gather information and review relevant materials;

(d) recommend corrective action, guidance or further review;

(e) recommend improvements to policies relating to standards and ethics.

4.3 Limits of Authority

Unless otherwise authorized, the Committee has no final disciplinary authority. It may investigate, evaluate and recommend, but the final decision rests with the Board where the governing documents so require.

4.4 Procedural Fairness

In reviewing matters, the Committee ensures a fair process, reasonable notice, appropriate confidentiality and an opportunity to respond, where applicable.

5. Awards & Recognition Committee Charter

5.1 Purpose

The Awards & Recognition Committee advances the Association's mission of recognizing excellence, contribution and leadership in the beauty industry through fair and credible recognition processes.

5.2 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee may:

(a) develop and recommend recognition categories and criteria;

(b) administer nomination and supporting documentation processes;

(c) verify eligibility for awards or recognition programs;

(d) maintain transparent and fair evaluation procedures;

(e) ensure conflict safeguards in recognition decisions;

(f) recommend honorees, finalists or award structures to the Board or other authorized decision-makers.

5.3 Limits of Authority

No award, title or form of recognition requiring Board approval is final until the applicable governance process has been completed. The award procedure is set out in the Awards and Recognition Policy.

5.4 Conflict of Interest Restrictions

Committee members may not take part in decisions on their own nominations or those of close associates, students, clients, family members, business partners or other persons or organizations with respect to whom a conflict of interest exists.

6. Education Committee Charter

6.1 Purpose

The Education Committee supports the Association's educational mission by developing and reviewing learning initiatives, professional development resources and educational programming.

6.2 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee may:

(a) recommend topics for webinars, workshops, courses and resources;

(b) assist with educational planning and programming;

(c) recommend speakers, instructors or content contributors;

(d) support the development of educational standards and best practices;

(e) advise on educational quality and relevance.

6.3 Limits of Authority

The Committee may recommend educational initiatives, but their implementation, financial commitment and official adoption are subject to approval by the Board or another authorized body.

7. Events Committee Charter

7.1 Purpose

The Events Committee supports the planning, coordination and delivery of the Association's events and related initiatives.

7.2 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee may:

(a) assist in planning events, their structure and programming;

(b) help coordinate logistics, participants, moderators or speakers;

(c) recommend event guidelines and participant expectations;

(d) identify opportunities for business, networking, educational and recognition events;

(e) coordinate with the relevant committees and Officers on event execution.

7.3 Limits of Authority

The Committee may not independently commit the Association to significant financial obligations, enter into contracts or make public event announcements without proper authorization.

8. Media & Publications Committee Charter

8.1 Purpose

The Media & Publications Committee supports the Association's publications, communications, editorial efforts and public-facing content initiatives.

8.2 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee may:

(a) recommend publication themes, editorial initiatives and content directions;

(b) support communications planning and the development of public content;

(c) help maintain quality, consistency and professionalism in the Association's publications;

(d) recommend contributors, authors or interview subjects;

(e) assist in reviewing materials for consistency with the mission and standards.

8.3 Limits of Authority

The Committee may advise and support, but final decisions on publication, branding and external communications are made within the authority established by the Board or designated Officers.

9. Partnerships Committee Charter

9.1 Purpose

The Partnerships Committee supports the Association's strategic relationships with brands, companies, schools, organizations, sponsors and other professional collaborators.

9.2 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee may:

(a) identify potential partnerships and collaborations consistent with the Association's mission;

(b) assess potential sponsors, partners or collaborators;

(c) support communication and relationship development with potential external parties;

(d) recommend partnership opportunities to the Board or authorized Officers;

(e) help assess whether a proposed collaboration is consistent with the Association's standards, values and reputation.

9.3 Limits of Authority

The Committee may not independently approve binding partnerships, sponsorship contracts or financial commitments unless expressly authorized.

10. Nominating and Governance Committee Charter

10.1 Purpose

The Nominating and Governance Committee is responsible for identifying, evaluating and recommending candidates for the Board of Directors and for maintaining the procedure for the election and onboarding of new directors.

10.2 Composition

The Committee is established by resolution of the Board of Directors under Section 9.1 of the Bylaws. The resolution names the Chair, the members and the Secretary of the Committee. The Secretary of the Committee keeps the minutes and does not vote.

10.3 Principal Responsibilities

The Committee:

(a) sends invitation letters and questionnaires to candidates;

(b) conducts interviews and evaluates candidates using the approved evaluation forms;

(c) prepares the minutes of each Committee meeting with a recommendation for each candidate;

(d) submits written recommendations to the Board for election;

(e) ensures that each elected director signs the Board Member Agreement, the Conflict of Interest Disclosure Statement and the Acknowledgment of Governing Documents before taking part in the first vote.

10.4 Limits of Authority

The Committee only recommends candidates. Directors are elected by the Board of Directors in accordance with Article 7 of the Bylaws.

11. Additional or Temporary Committees

The Board of Directors may establish additional standing or temporary committees, task forces, panels or working groups as needed, including an Accreditation Committee to review and accredit educational programs and schools.

For each such body, the Board determines:

(a) its purpose;

(b) its scope;

(c) its authority;

(d) its composition;

(e) its term or duration;

(f) its reporting obligations; and

(g) any special requirements for confidentiality or conflict disclosure.

12. Accountability and Performance Evaluation

The Board of Directors may periodically evaluate the effectiveness, necessity, structure, composition and performance of any committee.

The Board may:

(a) change a committee's scope;

(b) replace members or chairs;

(c) require enhanced reporting;

(d) suspend or dissolve a committee;

(e) merge or restructure committees.

13. Relationship to Other Governing Documents

These Charters apply together with the Association's Bylaws and all relevant governance policies.

In the event of a conflict between these Charters and the Bylaws, the Bylaws prevail unless otherwise required by law.

14. Amendments

These Charters may be amended by the Board of Directors at a duly noticed meeting or by other lawful Board action.

Amendments take effect on the date specified in the approving action unless otherwise provided.

15. Official Language

The official version of these Charters is maintained in English. Any translation is provided for convenience only. In the event of any discrepancy, the English version prevails.
