INTERNATIONAL BEAUTY PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION, INC. (IBPA)
A California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation
California Entity No. B20260111134
Federal EIN: 41-4933353
1220 Melody Ln, Suite 110
Roseville, CA 95678
+1 (279) 529-7117
support@ibpassociations.org
https://ibpassociations.org/

PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS

International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc.

Edition	Revised edition (supersedes all prior versions)
Effective date	November 11, 2026
Approved by	Board of Directors of International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc., Resolution No. 2026-01 dated November 11, 2026

1. Purpose of the Standards

The purpose of these Professional Standards (the "Standards") is to define the expected level of professional conduct, service quality, safety, ethics and industry participation for members of International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc. ("IBPA" or the "Association").

These Standards are intended to:

- establish a level of professional quality in the beauty industry;
- promote safe, ethical and responsible practice;
- ensure consistent service quality and client experience;
- provide guidance for professionals at different stages of development;
- strengthen trust between professionals, clients and the industry;
- maintain the reputation and authority of the Association.

The Standards apply to all members of the Association, taking into account their category and professional role.

2. Nature of the Standards

2.1 Not a Regulatory Document

These Standards do not replace laws, licenses or government regulation.

2.2 Complementary Role

They serve as professional guidance that complements applicable law.

2.3 Members' Responsibility

Each member must comply with:

- applicable laws;
- licensing requirements (where applicable);
- local, state and federal regulations.

3. Main Areas of the Standards

The Association sets standards in the following areas:

1. Professional conduct;
2. Client safety;
3. Hygiene and sanitation;
4. Service quality;
5. Communication;
6. Professional development;
7. Business practice;
8. Online and public positioning.

4. Standards of Professional Conduct

Members must:

- behave professionally;
- maintain appropriate boundaries with clients;
- be punctual;
- avoid unprofessional behavior;
- represent the profession with dignity.

5. Client Safety Standards

Members must:

- put client safety first;
- obtain the client's consent;
- assess the client's condition before a procedure;
- explain the risks;
- decline to perform a procedure where necessary.

It is prohibited to:

- work outside one's competence;
- ignore contraindications;
- sacrifice safety for profit.

6. Hygiene Standards

Members must:

- keep the workplace clean;
- comply with sanitary regulations;
- disinfect tools;
- use safe materials;
- prevent cross-contamination.

7. Service Quality Standards

Members must:

- work with quality and care;
- maintain their skill level;
- keep developing;
- not rush work at the expense of quality;
- maintain a professional level.

8. Communication Standards

Members must:

- communicate honestly with clients;
- explain the procedure;
- state the price;
- not mislead;
- set realistic expectations.

It is prohibited to:

- promise impossible results;
- conceal important information.

9. Professional Development

Members should:

- keep learning;
- attend courses;
- follow industry trends;
- keep developing.

In addition, for the Trainer / Educator category:

- provide quality education;
- make no false promises.

10. Business Standards

Business owners (Business Owner category) and companies (Brand / Company category) must:

- conduct business honestly;
- respect clients and employees;
- not mislead;
- operate transparently;
- observe business ethics.

11. Online and Public Conduct

Members must:

- present their work honestly;

- not misrepresent results;
- state their qualifications accurately;
- use IBPA status properly.

12. Standards by Category

In addition to the general standards, the following emphasis applies to each membership category established by the Membership Policy:

Membership category	Main emphasis of the Standards
Specialist	commitment to learning; respect for the profession
Professional	quality of work; client safety
Trainer / Educator	honest, high-quality education; transparency of programs and outcomes
Business Owner	responsible leadership; accountability to clients and employees
Brand / Company	honest advertising; transparent product information

13. Compliance with the Standards

Members must:

- comply with these Standards;
- comply with the Code of Ethics;
- maintain a professional level.

14. Violations

Violations include:

- unsafe work;
- unethical conduct;
- deception of clients, colleagues or the Association;
- violations confirmed by substantiated complaints;
- actions that harm the Association's reputation.

15. Review of Violations

Violations may be reviewed by:

- the Standards & Ethics Committee;
- the Membership Review Board;
- the Board of Directors.

Possible measures:

- a warning;
- restriction of participation or privileges;
- suspension of membership;
- termination of membership.

Appeals against such measures are governed by the Bylaws (Article 14) and the Membership Policy.

16. Relationship to Other Documents

These Standards apply together with:

- the Bylaws;
- the Code of Ethics;
- the Membership Policy;
- the Membership Application Review Procedure;
- the Membership Review Policy.

In the event of a conflict, the Bylaws prevail.

17. Amendments

The Standards may be amended by decision of the Board of Directors.

18. Official Language

The official version of these Standards is maintained in English. Any translation is provided for convenience only. In the event of any discrepancy, the English version prevails.