INTERNATIONAL BEAUTY PROFESSIONALS ASSOCIATION, INC. (IBPA)
A California Nonprofit Mutual Benefit Corporation
California Entity No. B20260111134
Federal EIN: 41-4933353
1220 Melody Ln, Suite 110
Roseville, CA 95678
+1 (279) 529-7117
support@ibpassociations.org
https://ibpassociations.org/

GOVERNANCE POLICY

International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc.

Edition	Revised edition (supersedes all prior versions)
Effective date	November 11, 2026
Approved by	Board of Directors of International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc., Resolution No. 2026-01 dated November 11, 2026

1. Purpose and Authority

This Governance Policy (the "Policy") establishes the official governance structure, allocation of authority, decision-making system, oversight mechanisms and accountability standards of International Beauty Professionals Association, Inc. (the "Association" or "IBPA").

This Policy is adopted to:

(a) ensure lawful, effective and transparent governance;

(b) define the authority and responsibilities of all governing bodies;

(c) ensure consistency, accountability and integrity in decision-making and administration;

(d) protect the mission, assets and reputation of the Association;

(e) ensure compliance with applicable federal and state nonprofit law and regulatory requirements.

This Policy must be read together with the Bylaws and the Association's other governing documents. In the event of a conflict, the Bylaws prevail unless otherwise required by law.

2. Governance Structure

The governance structure of the Association consists of:

(a) the Board of Directors (the "Board");

(b) the officers of the Association;

(c) duly established committees;

(d) authorized agents, contractors, consultants or representatives.

All governance authority rests with the Board, except where lawfully delegated in accordance with this Policy and the Bylaws.

3. Board of Directors

3.1 Role and Authority

The Board of Directors is the highest governing body of the Association and bears ultimate responsibility for:

(a) strategic direction and long-term planning;

(b) adopting, amending and enforcing governing documents and policies;

(c) oversight of all programs, operations and organizational processes;

(d) financial oversight, including budgeting, financial controls and resource allocation;

(e) compliance with applicable law, regulatory requirements and reporting;

(f) protecting the mission, assets, intellectual property and reputation of the Association.

3.2 Reserved Powers

The following matters are reserved exclusively to the Board and may not be delegated unless expressly permitted by law:

(a) adopting and amending the Bylaws and core governance policies;

(b) appointing, evaluating and removing officers;

(c) approving annual budgets and material financial commitments;

(d) approving strategic partnerships, sponsorships, contracts or binding agreements;

(e) creating, reorganizing or dissolving committees;

(f) approving disciplinary measures affecting membership, leadership or governance roles;

(g) approving major organizational initiatives, structural changes or expansion of activities.

3.3 Fiduciary Duties

Each director must act in accordance with his or her fiduciary duties, including:

(a) the Duty of Care — to act in good faith, with reasonable care and on an adequately informed basis;

(b) the Duty of Loyalty — to act in the best interests of the Association and avoid conflicts of interest;

(c) the Duty of Obedience — to ensure compliance with applicable law and the governing documents.

3.4 Standard of Conduct

Directors must perform their duties:

(a) in good faith;

(b) with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances;

(c) in a manner reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Association.

3.5 Board Members with Designated Functions

In addition to the officers, the Board may include Board Members with designated functions: Membership Selection & Quality Control, Legal Affairs and Financial Affairs. Their functions are set out in the Board of Directors, Officers and Committees Governance Policy and in the Board Member Agreement.

4. Officers

4.1 Composition

The officers of the Association include at a minimum:

(a) the President;

(b) the Vice President;

(c) the Secretary;

(d) the Treasurer;

and such other officers as the Board may determine.

4.2 Authority and Duties

Officers must:

(a) implement the decisions, strategies and policies approved by the Board;

(b) carry out day-to-day administrative and operational management;

(c) oversee the implementation of programs, initiatives and services;

(d) ensure accurate documentation, reporting and record-keeping;

(e) act strictly within the authority expressly granted by the Board.

Officers may not exceed their delegated authority and remain accountable to the Board.

5. Committees

5.1 Establishment

The Board may establish standing or special committees, including, without limitation:

- the Membership Review Board;
- the Standards & Ethics Committee;
- the Awards & Recognition Committee;
- the Education Committee;
- the Events Committee;
- the Media & Publications Committee;
- the Partnerships Committee;
- the Nominating and Governance Committee.

The list, composition and authority of committees are determined by the Bylaws (Article 9), the Board of Directors, Officers and Committees Governance Policy, the Committee Charters and resolutions of the Board of Directors.

5.2 Scope of Authority

Committees:

(a) act strictly within the authority delegated by the Board;

(b) carry out analysis, review and preparation of recommendations;

(c) have no final decision-making authority unless expressly granted.

5.3 Accountability and Reporting

All committees must:

(a) report to the Board regularly;

(b) keep accurate records of meetings and actions;

(c) comply with all applicable policies and procedures.

6. Board Meetings

6.1 Regular Meetings

The Board holds meetings at intervals determined by the Board to ensure effective governance and oversight.

6.2 Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called:

(a) by the President;

(b) by a majority of the directors;

(c) otherwise as provided in the Bylaws.

6.3 Notice

Reasonable advance notice must be given, including:

- the date;
- the time;
- the format of the meeting;
- the agenda (if any).

6.4 Quorum

A quorum is a majority of the directors unless otherwise provided in the Bylaws.

No official business may be conducted without a quorum.

6.5 Voting

Unless otherwise provided:

(a) decisions are made by a majority of the directors present;

(b) each director has one vote;

(c) proxy voting is not permitted unless expressly permitted by law or the Bylaws.

6.6 Remote Participation

Directors may participate by electronic means, including videoconference or teleconference.

Such participation constitutes presence for the purposes of quorum and voting.

7. Decision-Making and Delegation of Authority

7.1 General Rule

All material decisions affecting governance, finances, structure, policy or strategic direction require Board approval.

7.2 Delegation

The Board may delegate authority to officers or committees provided that:

(a) the scope of delegated authority is clearly defined;

(b) appropriate limits and conditions are set;

(c) ongoing oversight and accountability are ensured.

7.3 Limits on Delegation

Delegation does not extend to:

- amendments to the Bylaws;
- decisions on dissolution or winding up;
- fundamental changes to the governance system or structure.

8. Records and Documentation

The Association must maintain complete, accurate and properly organized records, including:

(a) minutes of Board and committee meetings;

(b) resolutions, approvals and decisions;

(c) financial statements and accounting records;

(d) governing documents and policies;

(e) reports and official correspondence.

Records must be retained in accordance with applicable law and the Association's Records Retention Policy.

9. Oversight and Accountability

The Board must:

(a) oversee the activities of officers and committees;

(b) ensure compliance with the governing documents and policies;

(c) identify and manage organizational and governance risks;

(d) take corrective or disciplinary measures where necessary.

10. Compliance with the Conflict of Interest Policy

All persons involved in governance must comply with the Association's Conflict of Interest Policy.

Failure to disclose a conflict or improper management of a conflict may result in disciplinary or governance measures.

11. Legal Compliance

All governance activities must be carried out in accordance with:

(a) applicable federal and state nonprofit law;

(b) regulatory and reporting requirements;

(c) the governing documents and internal policies of the Association.

12. Limitation of Authority

No person, officer, director or committee member may make commitments on behalf of the Association or enter into agreements unless expressly authorized to do so.

Any unauthorized action is not binding on the Association.

13. Indemnification

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Association may indemnify directors, officers and authorized representatives against liability arising from actions taken in good faith in the performance of their duties.

14. Amendments

This Policy may be amended, supplemented or repealed by the Board of Directors in accordance with the Association's established governance procedures.

15. Official Language

The official version of this Policy is maintained in English. Any translation is provided for convenience only. In the event of any discrepancy, the English version prevails.